

VA VIRGINIA SCHENCK JAZZ VOCALIST / VOCAL ARTIST

"Atlanta's Jazz Sweetheart" — City Winery Atlanta

"We're at a crossroads in the nation, a silent Civil War where our truths have been challenged. Battle Cry is an impactful recording with a lot of patriotism. It is a soulful, inspirational call to us to reflect and become an active part of the solution." — D. Oscar Groomes/O's Place Jazz

"this album neither heals nor takes up arms in defiance. Rather, VA offers up her selections as a foundation for reflection...The tracks of Battle Cry may encourage at least some of us to set about laying that foundation." — Stephen Smoliar, The Rehearsal Studio

"seasoned soulful unit...connects on what seems like a personal and spiritual level!" — JAZZIZ magazine

"Schenck's work distinctively does not follow any truly prescribed path...yet feels immediately familiar, intimate, as though you've known it since birth." — Mark S. Tucker, FAME

"A powerful quintet that can find unfathomed spaces!" — The Atlanta Journal-Constitution

"WONDERFUL CD...WONDERFUL Singer!" — Sheila Jordan, 2012 NEA Jazz Master

"Aminata Moseka is a remarkable album...Schenck's uniqueness is immediately apparent...an inspired project." — NYC Jazz Record

"Crossing the borders of time, race, and emotion!" — Carl Anthony, Notorious Jazz

"Explosive jazz vocal magic" — Dick Metcalf, Contemporary Fusion Reviews

"the creativity on parade here is a real non-stop outpouring" — Chris Spector, Midwest Record

"an edgy performer who knows how to convey raw emotion into her music." — Jazz History Online

"She sings as if her life depends on it, making each song akin to a one-act play!" — Aquarian Weekly

"Fascinating singer...a stellar performance from Virginia!" — Improvijazzation Nation

"Accessible authenticity you simply don't find in a lot of modern musicians. It cuts into your heart and mind like a scalpel. She is the very definition of excellence." — Gabriel Shanks, Obie Award-winning stage director, Executive Director/ The Drama League of New York

"She brings new music to the world." — Benoit Glazer, Timucua White House/Orlando
